Dear Steve:

Congratulations on the new look on the RMI Training Web site and thank you for your assistance with my registration. I can always count on you to have the most ingenious opportunities to further my workers' compensation knowledge. Adding Kathy Oliver to your team only proves the outstanding value you bring to the Workers' Comp system everywhere!

At Shaw Industries we enthusiastically support the State Board's initiative to train medical providers in Georgia and we encourage all medical providers with an emphasis on workers' compensation claims to participate in RMI's Medical Training. This program brings value and understanding to a rather complicated system and can only enhance a physician's expertise in the treatment of work-related accident/injuries. The concept of the availability of a physician network in Georgia is an asset to all employers and carriers who are involved and care about the medical treatment of their injured workers. You bring so much insight to and resources to workers' comp. Thank you!

Shaw would like to contribute to the Board's growing physician network and provide the attached file with all our Georgia Panels. I hope you will find this useful. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. As always, we appreciate your time and kind cooperation. I remain

Truly yours,
